

Pick the Number closest to another in this Competition

Write your name and any one number as your answer on this form. Any entries of the same number are disqualified. The finalists are the people who enter numbers who are closest to one another, that is to say the difference between them is the smallest value of any pairwise entries. It is possible for there to be more than two finalists.

The winner is the entry with the highest number. One entry per person.

Name:

Answer: